

PunkCore:

Developing an application profile for the culture of punk

Joelen Pastva & Valerie Harris

UIC UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS AT CHICAGO LIBRARY

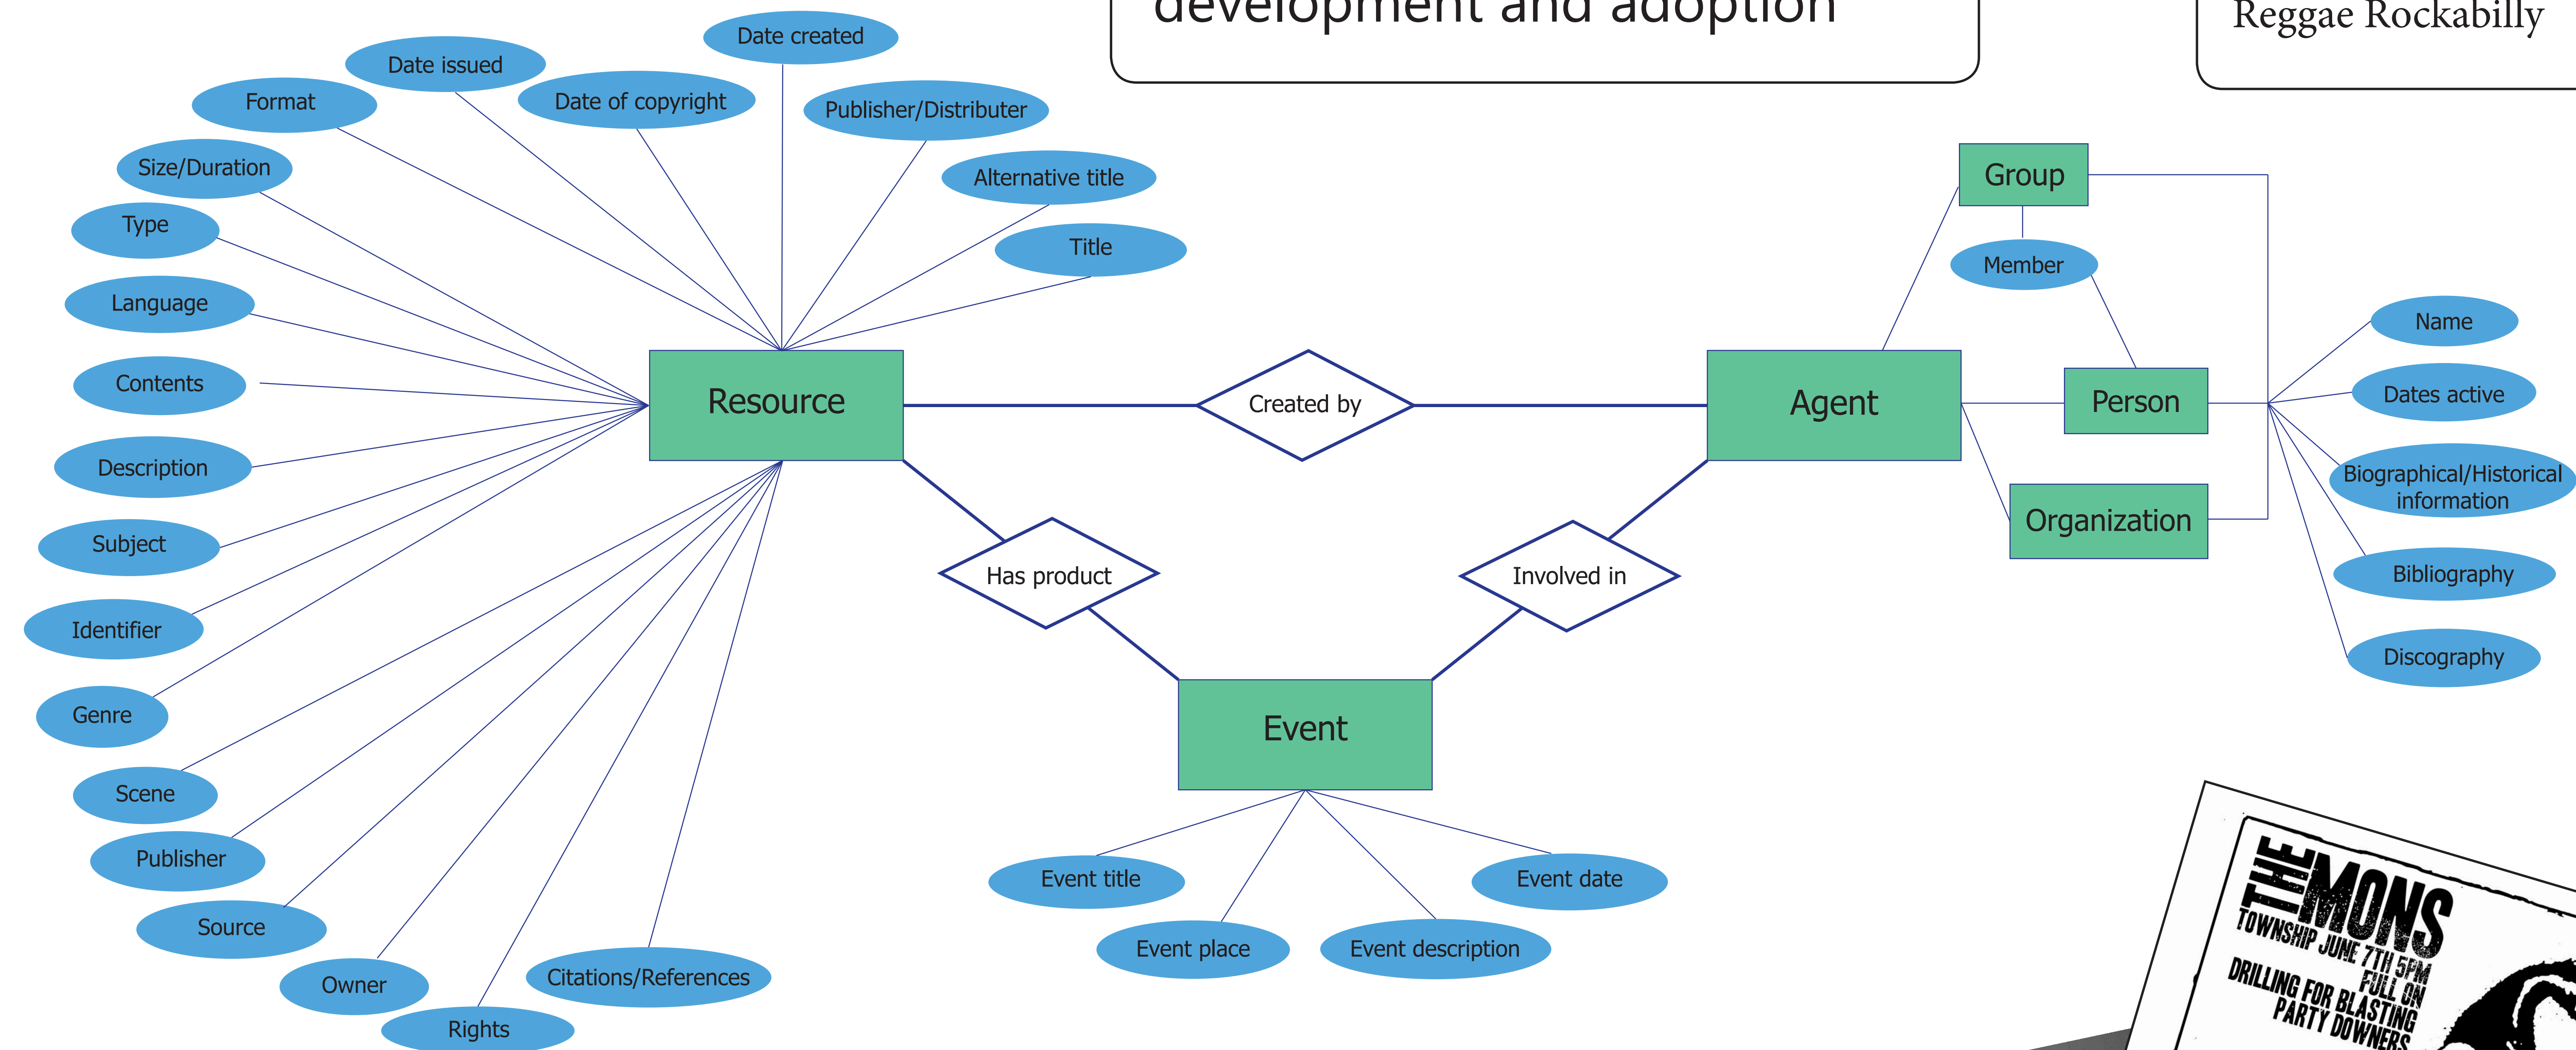

PunkCore is a Dublin Core Application Profile for the description of the culture of Punk, including its music, its places, its fashions, its artistic expression through film and art, and its artifacts such as fliers, patches, buttons, and other ephemera.

Design considerations:

- Granular for expert users
- Accessible to non-experts
- Coverage of variety of formats
- Support FRBR user tasks
- Encourage community development and adoption
